FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE COLIN POWELL TO HEADLINE AMERICAN HOME
FURNISHINGS HALL OF FAME INDUCTION CELEBRATION OCT. 15

HIGH POINT, N.C., April 17, 2017 — Former Secretary of State Colin Powell will be the keynote speaker at the American Home Furnishings Hall of Fame Foundation Induction Celebration on October 15 during the High Point Market. The retired general, who has held senior military and diplomatic positions across four presidential administrations, is among the most admired and respected leaders in the world today.

"I can't think of a better way to honor our Hall of Fame inductees than to have an inspiring, globally recognized leader like Gen. Powell deliver our keynote address," says Bob Maricich, president of the Foundation board of directors. "One of the most important roles of the Home Furnishings Hall of Fame is celebrating extraordinary individuals who, through their accomplishments and service, have helped build and define our industry. We are celebrating leadership at its best."

For more than 50 years, Powell has devoted his life to public service. The son of Jamaican immigrants, he served in the U.S. Army for 35 years, rising to the rank of Four-Star General. He was President Ronald Reagan's National Security Advisor from 1987 to 89. He served as Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff for both President George H.W. Bush and President Bill Clinton; he was the youngest officer and first ROTC graduate ever to serve, as well as the first African American. Under President George W. Bush, Powell was appointed 65th Secretary of State and was unanimously confirmed by the U.S. Senate. In addition to numerous U.S. military awards and decorations, as well as many civil honors including two Presidential Medals of Freedom, Powell has received awards from over two-dozen countries including an honorary knighthood bestowed by Queen Elizabeth II of Great Britain. Powell is the chair of the board of visitors of the Colin Powell School for Civic and Global Leadership at his alma mater, the City College of New York, and is founder and chairman emeritus of America's Promise Alliance, dedicated to ensuring that children have the fundamental resources they need to succeed. Powell also serves as a board member or adviser with several renowned firms and organizations. His autobiography, My American Journey, was a bestseller and has been published in more than a dozen languages. His second book, It Worked for Me, also a bestseller, focuses on the lessons that shaped his life and career. Powell and his wife, Alma, live in McLean, Va., and have three children and four grandchildren.
