AMERICAN HOME FURNISINGS HALL OF FAME FOUNDATION ELECTS JANET GUY TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

HIGH POINT, N.C., April 8, 2018 — The American Home Furnishings Hall of Fame Foundation, Inc. has elected Janet Guy to its 22-member Board of Directors for a three-year term. Guy is president and owner of Prestige Arts and Art Trends, a leading wall décor manufacturing company based in Laguna Niguel, Calif., with showrooms at the Dallas, High Point and Las Vegas markets. The forty-year-old company offers a diverse collection of reproducible high-quality original oil paintings and fine art gicleés.

“The Hall of Fame Board is the most diverse board in the industry with five retailers, five furniture manufacturers, four home accents manufacturers, two bedding manufacturers, two fabrics manufacturers and four industry service providers,” says Jeff Child, Hall of Fame board president. “Janet and her family have been active in the Hall of Fame and have been terrific ambassadors for our leadership initiative. We look forward to the leadership and insight that she brings to not just the Hall of Fame but to our industry.”
